IN BRIEF.

Everybody who is making a garden should go to Woodard & Wilkins and get onions which are sprouted six inches long, 1,200 bushels and potatoes, cheap, 411 Houston street.

Marriage License.

The following marriage licenses have been issued in the county clerk's office: J. R. Roberts to Miss L. A. Noble, Thomas Greene to Miss M. H. Giddens, A. M. Loeffel to Miss Mendora Bachelor.

County Court.

In the county court yesterday the case of Thos. Millington vs. the Texas & Pacific railway company was dismissed through a plea of limitation sustained by the court. The case will be appealed. The case of John H. Dorman vs. the Texas & Pacific railway company was on trial when the court adjourned until this morning.

After a Bond Jumper.

Sheriff W. A. Maddox started north to Ironton, O., last night after a man named Leach Coalson, who is wanted in this county on a charge of horse-stealing. Coalson jumped his bond of $1,000 at the last term of the district court, and returned. It is supposed, to Ohio, where he lived prior to coming to Texas. He was arrested several days ago, while working in a coal bank, by the city marshal of Ironton, Ohio.

New Policemen.

City Marshal W. M. B. has appointed two new policemen and assigned them to duty. The appointees are Robert Buchanan and Andrew Brandon, men of known qualifications for their positions. Mr. Buchanan's bond will be south of the railroad where he will alternate with Officer Coker. Mr. Brandon takes Coker's place in the Third and Fourth wards with Officer Cooper. The citizens below the railroad will now feel safer since they have two good officers to guard their persons and property.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's mother, on the 7th inst., by the Rev. W. H. Wright of the Christian church, Mr. J. A. Williams to Miss Kate Minter, all of Tarrant county.

We congratulate Mr. Williams on his good success in winning the affections of one so eminently worthy of his devotion.

Two females are linked in one. Two forms must meet the weather; Two hearts now beat in love as one; Two hands are joined together, Alone they walk, before the world, Above their heads Christ's banner furled, How sweet is such communion.

W. B. S.

Billiard Match.

A billiard match between Morris E. Fleming of this city and George Stone of Dallas for $1,000 has been arranged, and the game, 500 points, French crown, will take place in the Cattle Exchange in this city on the 23rd inst. A forfeit has already been put up, and the match will be played on its merits. Fleming was at one time the champion billiardist of Iowa, and is said to be one of the best four-ball billiardists in the country. Stone is a fine player and has already a fine reputation as a billiardist in the Northern states. A close game is expected and a great deal of money will change hands on the result.

County Finances.

The county commissioners court was in session yesterday considering accounts. The last quarterly report of County Treasurer J. B. Boyd was received and approved. In this report, which is full and complete, the amount of funds on hand are summarized as follows:

First-class fund	$3,837.90
Second-class fund	4,810.34
Fourth-class fund	292.24
Fifth-class fund	174.04
Sixth-class fund	32,404.87

Total on hand, $41,489.37. The third-class fund has been overpaid to the amount of $1,205.49. This quarterly report indicates the state of the county finances up to the 31st of December, 1883.

Welby in Camille.

Of Bertha Welby, who appears here Monday night next in Camille, her best place, the Chattanooga Democrat said on the day after her appearance there: "Miss Welby secures the sympathy of the audience when she first enters upon the stage, and, until she leaves, the interest never flags. She is entirely free from mannerisms or anything like stage posturing and carries out her part with a most pleasing and attractive naturalness. She is vivacious, pathetic and captivating. In fact she is a charming actress, and merits the patronage of the lovers of genuine genius of every section. Bertha Welby is by far more handsome than Mrs. Langtry, but, like most American women, she relies more upon her power to act than upon her beauty."

TO THE RESCUE.

A Call for Contributions for the Sufferers from the Floods.

The following appeal for help appeared in the telegraphic columns of the GAZETTE yesterday.

Toledo, February 12.—The following appeal is issued by the supreme dictator of the Knights of Honor:

SUPREME LODGE, K. O. H., Toledo, O., February 12, 1884.

Distress calls to all lodges and Knights of Honor.

Thousands of families are suffering from the awful floods in the Ohio and tributary streams. This cry only needs to be named to induce instant aid, much or little, from each of our three thousand lodges and one hundred and thirty thousand members. The distress is too dire to await relief through a single channel. Aid sent by telegraph or otherwise to either of the following persons will be distributed to their own neighboring and remote communities to needy sufferers, whether they be of us or not: Col. Lewis Wilson, Cincinnati, Ohio; A. G. Schaff, Wheeling, West Virginia; Judge Robert J. Breckenridge, Louisville, Kentucky; Judge Akey Johnson, Parkersburg, West Virginia; Thos. C. Richards, Zanesville, Ohio; J. B. Egan, Covington, Kentucky; Roseman Gardner, Steubenville, Ohio; Rev. Thos. Mayhew, Allegheny, Pennsylvania; W. B. Godfrey, New Albany, Indiana. Sufferers in other communities will report needs to one of the above.

(Signed) R. H. COCHRAN, Dictator.

The people of Fort Worth are always ready to respond to the call of distress. In order that those who are able and willing to contribute may join hands in this matter, it is necessary to have a common receiver of contributions. The following card will doubtless receive a liberal response:

To the Knights of Honor of Fort Worth:

Brothers—I desire to call your special attention to the card of Supreme Dictator R. H. Cochran, which appeals to the sympathies of all charitable persons, but more especially to Knights of Honor, who are proverbial for their promptness in answering the distressed call. Our financial reporter, Bro. R. E. Eakin, will receive any amounts contributed and forward the same at once.

In O. M. A. J. J. MELTON, Dictator.

THIRD AND FOURTH WARDS.

The following officials of the Santa Fe road were in the city yesterday: Jas. H. Robinson, general traveling passenger agent; W. A. Correll, general agent of North Texas, and B. W. Walker, assistant-general freight agent. Other officials of the road were expected here yesterday evening, but their presence is not believed to indicate any changes in the management of the road at this point.

The Santa Fe trains are running on a schedule which keeps many citizens of Fort Worth from patronizing the line. This city is one of its chief supporters, yet it seems to be utterly ignored by the management.

A handsome young man in the south-east corner of the Third ward shot a hole through his pants yesterday while putting a six-shooter in his hip pocket. The young man may have been nervous; he may have been excited or possibly in love, which latter state sometimes makes a fellow forget which end of a pistol the hammer is on. We hope the young man will not become nervous or excited when he reads this, for if he does the writer will take a trip out west to see his relatives.

The Union depot was crowded with passengers last night.

A report was life yesterday that the delay in the east-bound Texas & Pacific train was due to an accident which occurred near Eastland, the first station this side of Cisco. Nothing definite could be learned except that a passenger coach was derailed and a passenger coach on the regular east-bound train derailed at four o'clock yesterday morning had turned over. Even this was a rumor, but the trains had not arrived at a late hour last night.

LET US HAVE

The million-dollar hotel.
The free public library.
Good street crossings.
A big medical college.
The biggest woolen mill in the state.
More railroad extensions.
Double-deck cars for shipping sheep.
A tannery to use the refrigerator hides.
The Democratic state convention.
The Republican state convention.
The Greenback state convention.
A big wigwag to hold them all.
Sunshine and warm weather.
Liberal contributions for the Ohio sufferers.
A boom in marriage licenses.
An immense cotton factory.
A more sensible schedule on the Santa Fe.
A city of a hundred thousand souls.

For the Drummers.

Col. Wm. Henry presented the Fort Worth Drummers' Band Club yesterday with a large collection of reading matter for the library. It was a number of copies of Scribner's, Galaxy, Atlantic and Ballou's standard monthlies, dating back as far as 1868. These will afford great interest to the members and visitors of this pleasant organization, and are highly prized by the club.

Chimes of Normandy.

This beautiful opera will be presented at the opera house to-morrow night by the young ladies and gentlemen who have been faithfully at work preparing it for the past three months. The net proceeds will be turned over to the proposed public library. All who enjoy the opera and all who sympathize with the movement to establish a library, should lend their hearty aid by attending.

What Horse?

To the Gazette:

Will you give some of the city officers please be kind enough to inform the public why one of the horses belonging to the city was taken to the tent stables and its eye taken out with a spoon? The horse was perfectly sound the matter with it? It was doubtless a source of great pleasure to those that saw it, but should dumb brutes be thus maltreated and their service impaired for a spectacle of the mob?

CIVIL.

To Blacksmiths.

We keep a stock of the celebrated Coe self-feeding drills on hand.

HENRY & PEAK.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

Origin of Its Celebration, and How It will be Observed.

Valentine's Day, says Chambers, was formerly celebrated in England, Scotland, and in different parts of the continent, particularly in France and Maine in France, by a very peculiar and amusing custom. On the eve of St. Valentine, a number of young folks—maids and bachelors—would assemble together and inscribe upon little billets the names of an equal number of maids and bachelors of their acquaintance, throw the whole into a receptacle of some sort, and then draw lotteries—wise—of course, each taking that which should draw one of the opposite sex. The person thus drawn becomes one's valentine. Of course, besides having got a valentine for one's self, one became,
